

today

Main Street Gallery opens juried photo exhibit

The Main Street Gallery in Groton proudly presents its third juried fine art photography exhibition, "National Photography '06," running today through Nov. 26. This year is the first year the competition has gone national.

There will be an Opening Reception from 5-8 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 28, and an Awards Ceremony at 7 p.m. Light refreshments will be served and the event is free and open to the public.

The jurors were Nicolai Klimaszewski, Chairman of the Photography Department, Tompkins Cortland Community College, and Roger Smith, Director of the Main Street Gallery.

Thirty-seven carefully chosen pieces of fine art photography will be shown at The Main Street Gallery. The works cover a wide spectrum of subject matter as well as photographic techniques and printing processes.

Regan Avery from Cos Cob, Conn., photographs a conceptual view within a view with her piece "Mirror #101." Rachel Cox from Denton, Texas, photographs an "Empty Snack Bar" decked with retro color and design waiting for its onslaught of customers. Keith Millman from Ithaca intrigues our imagination with his photograph "Paint Skin #3" giving us a contemporary slant on a portrait. These are but a few of the fine art pieces you can experience at the National Photography '06 exhibition at The Main Street Gallery.

Provided

"Empty Snack Bar," by Rachel Cox of Denton, Texas, will be among the 37 pieces of photographic art to be displayed at Groton's Main Street Gallery during its National Photography '06 juried show, running today through Nov. 26.

The gallery is located at 105 Main St. in Groton. Gallery hours are noon to 7 p.m. Thursdays and Fridays, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturdays and 1-5 p.m. Sundays.

For more information, call 898-9010 or visit www.mainstreetgal.com.